

Summer School “CSR 2015”

7 – 11 July 2015

University of West Bohemia, Pilsen, Czech Republic

The first Summer School in Communication of Scientific Research (CSR) in the Czech Republic

Location: The Institute of Applied Language Studies of the University of West Bohemia, Pilsen, Czech Republic

Term: 7 – 11 July 2015 (daily from 10.00 a.m. to 6.00 p.m.)

Programme: 7 hours per day of theoretical and practical lessons on the basics of theory of communication applied to scientific research; construction of written and oral texts, analyses of written and oral texts prepared by participants, small groups work session and class discussion

Participants: young researchers (PhD students, grant holders, post-doctoral fellows) working in the area of natural and social sciences as well as the humanities

Lecturer: scientific background in biology, PhD in biochemistry, the author of a handbook on communication of scientific research, freelance lecturer in communication of scientific research since 2006

Registration Fee: 350 euro per person, and does not include accommodation and meals

Accommodation: university halls of residence in the vicinity of the campus

Meals: university dining facilities on campus

Language: English

Registration: by May 31, 2015. Application form is available on web site and should be filled in every part: <http://ujp.zcu.cz/en/student/csr/>

Payment: by June 15, 2015

For further information please contact:

web site: <http://ujp.zcu.cz/en/student/csr/>

email: csr15@ujp.zcu.cz

Institute of Applied Language Studies
University of West Bohemia
Univerzitní 22, 306 14 Pilsen
Czech Republic